

Fast Track Business Analysis: Bringing Success to Projects

Course ISI-1231D - Three days - Instructor-led

Course Objective: Students will examine the need for rigorous business analysis to increase project success.

- Define business analysis and explain how it is different from other analysis activities that occur in businesses today
- Explore the knowledge, skills and abilities required to be a successful business analyst
- Overview of the role of the business analyst throughout the business solution development life cycle
  - Business Analysis Foundations
  - Strategy Analysis
  - Gap Analysis (Current to Future State)
  - Solution Recommendations
  - Business Analysis Planning and Management

Performance-Based Objectives: Upon successful completion of this course, students will be able to:

- Learn from real life examples and tips that illustrate key principles in business analysis
- Learn the important role of a business analyst to be the strategist, change agent and liaison between organizational; strategic alignment and stakeholders' expectations
- Learn how to translate business strategies into valuable solutions and using business analysis

Target Student: This course is designed for business analysts, project and program managers working on key change initiatives that need transition to valuable portfolio of programs and supporting projects.

Delivery Method: Instructor led, group-paced, classroom-delivery learning model with structured hands-on activities.

Business Analysis: Bridging Success to Challenged Projects is presented as a 3-day course instructor-led format, stressing best practices in business analysis by use of slides, exercises and group discussions. The course material stresses business analysis best practices, consistent with 'A Guide to the Business Analysis Body of Knowledge ® (BABOK), version 3.0.

Contact ISInc for more information at 916.920.1700 or by visiting our website at <http://www.isinc.com>