

Snowflake Level 1

Course ISI-1545

3 Days

Instructor-led, Hands on

Introduction

This 3-day course introduces students to the fundamentals of Snowflake. Students will be introduced to the concepts & hands on expertise to help get you started on implementing solutions using Snowflake. provides Snowflake concepts & hands on expertise to help get you started on implementing solutions using Snowflake. This course provides Snowflake concepts and hands-on experience to help get you started on implementing solutions using Snowflake.

ISInc is not an authorized Snowflake training partner.

Prerequisites

Before attending this course, students should have:

- Familiarity with database and data warehousing concepts
- Familiar with SQL.

Course Outline

Module 1: What is Snowflake

Module 2: What makes Snowflake unique

Module 3: ETL Basics with Snowflake

Module 4: Introduction to Query Constructs and DDL & DML Operations

Module 5: Review Snowflakes broad SQL support for data analysis

Module 6: Manage user and application access

Module 7: Best practices around semi-structured data

Module 8: Connect and interact with the Snowflake Platform

Module 9: Intro to Continuous Data Protection

Module 10: Intro to Utilize Data Sharing

Contact ISInc for more information at 916.920.1700 or by visiting our website at <http://www.isinc.com>